ENLIGHTENED CRITICAL THINKING /
Pensamiento crítico ilustrado

22,5 X 22,5 cm | 144 pages | paperback | Young & Adult

WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

This book is two books in one. The first is a mental self-defense manual about how to resist manipulation and confusion through different strategies that neutralize propaganda, emotionalism, dogmatism and nihilism.

The second one is a praise of the great enlightened values, such as love for the truth, exercise of tolerance, defense of democracy, promotion of a respectful secularism, value of friendship and search for happiness for the greatest number of people.

The author Bernat Castany Prado was selected finalist for the Anagrama Essay Award 2021.

EVOLUTION IN ACTION / Evolución en acción

24 x 24 cm | 64 pages | hardback | non-fiction

WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

The theory of evolution is one of the pinnacles of human knowledge, but its knowledge and understanding has a little problem—the immense time scale on which it operates respect our brief lives. Although, if we look closely, we can observe evolution in action in certain species that are right now in a moment of transition or are clear intermediate elements.

In Evolution in action we can appreciate examples of evolution that are happening just now.

ENIGMAS / Enigmas

22 x 30 cm | 60 pages | hardback | Young & Adult

Rights sold to: Brazil

Classic tales offer curious enigmas.

What did Little Red Riding Hood find inside the wolf belly?

Did you know about Little White Riding Hood, the first of all?

And about Little Black Riding Hood, the one who even the wolves fear?

Who is Rose Red?

Was the Stepmother born so evil, or became after?

There are so many questions...

Enrique Benítez Bellón

HOME MONSTERS / Los monstruos de casa

21 x 26 cm | 48 pages | hardback | children

WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Kike's imagination has no limit. This is the story of how Kike's mom taught him how to make fun on what scared him.

Kike was afraid of darkness and needed to sleep with a light on. If not, nightmares where too real. His mom began a new game. He had to draw a monster of anything he was afraid of: night noises, night barks...

Esperanza León / Ana Tortosa

MY WAY HOME / Camino de mi casa

21,5 x 30 cm | 40 pages | hardback | children

Rights sold to: Brazil

A heartbreaking story about exile, how a girl feels when she must leave home. Destruction carried away benches, mailboxes, parks, schools, trees, fountains, houses...

War destroyed everything, inexplicably.

Mo Gutiérrez Serna

HAPPY LITTLE GIRL / Feliza

20 x 20 cm | 32 pages | hardback | children

WORLD RIGHTS AVAILABLE

My name is Happy Little Girl and I am still small, but someday I will grow up. They give me a lot of advice, they tell me to learn:

- to make an effort to achieve my dreams, that's why I ask my mom for things a hundred times
- to overcome difficulties, that's why when I break a vase or a mirror I ask for glue
- to always be kind and tell the truth, that's why I tell my friend that I love her rabbit teeth.

Mo has published many picture books in Thule, including: Rain and Sugar Recipes and Star Growers.

Ester García / Victoria Pérez Escrivá

THE SECRET LANGUAGE OF STONES

El lenguaje secreto de las piedras

21 x 30 cm | 32 pages | hardback | children

Rights sold to: Italy & Taiwan

Everything has a good side and a bad side. Life doesn't always let us see both. Sometimes from bad things we get good things. But it also happens the other way around, from good things we get bad things. Life can be as cryptic as a stone. Sometimes tripping over one can save your life. That is The Secret Language of Stones.

Mireia Vidal / Neus Caamaño

MR. SHAUN'S TREE

El árbol del señor Shaun

23 x 23 cm | 48 pages | hardback | children

World rights available

Mr. Shaun had a perfect tree right in the middle of his garden: not too tall, not too green, not too leafy. But one day he got tired of collecting so many leaves and decided to cut it down. And life was never the same again.

Eva Manzano / Mo Gutiérrez Serna
STAR GROWERS
AND OTHER FUTURE PROFESSIONS
 Cultivadores de estrellas
 y otras profesiones del futuro

22 x 30 cm | 32 pages | hardback | children
World rights available

The inventors of professions are travellers, wanderers and talkers. To invent professions, whether you are a girl or a boy, a man or a woman, you need to gather two skills: take pulse of what is happening, and make your heart beat with imagination. This is how star growers, tree interpreters, timeobats (time acrobats) or the custodians of flying ecosystems have come to be invented.

Miguel Ángel Sáez
LEO & LISA. BEYOND THE SOLE CITY
 Leo y Lisa. Más allá de la ciudad única

22 x 31 cm | 56 pages | hardback | children
Rights sold to: China & Brazil

The world has changed. There's just one city left standing: The Sole City.

Leo is an inventor who uses recycled materials. Lisa is the test pilot. They believe that beyond the walls of The Sole City there is life, but classmates bully them, the teacher ridicules them and the city's tycoon pursues them. However, Leo and Lisa are willing to do anything to prove them wrong.

Leo & Lisa is illustrated from recycled scrap materials to show the beauty of useless things and the life beyond the obvious.

Aron Ra / Elisa Ancori
WE ARE ALL APES
 Tú, humano, eres un simio

22 x 30 cm | 32 pages | hardback | non-fiction
World rights available

Apes are a taxonomic family of several species extant and extinct, including humans. If you list all the many diagnostic characteristics of what an ape is (opposable thumbs, color vision, type of ears, dentition, etc.), everything on that list describes people too.

HOW TO RECOGNISE A MONSTER

Cómo reconocer a un monstruo

20 x 20 cm | 24 pages | hardback | children

Rights sold to: China, France, Brazil & USA (Braille)

Whenever we meet something that looks like a monster, it's better to make sure it's indeed a monster. If it has so many legs to look like a forest, if it has yellow eyes under its eyebrows, if its nose is as huge as an aubergine; and above all, if it has a pitch dark mouth full of teeth, then there is no doubt: it's a monster!

THE MOST AMAZING TRICK IN THE WORLD

El truco más asombroso del mundo

22 x 30 cm | 48 pages | hardback | children

World rights available

A girl makes a magic trick in front of the reader. The trick is not new, many times we have seen a magician taking a rabbit out of the hat.

What is completely amazing is the explanation of how she did it, because then fantasy breaks the norms of reality to which we are all used to.

Decur

MI FAVOURITE DRAWER / Mi cajón favorito

28 x 10 cm | 40 pages | hardback | Young & Adult

World rights available

Cartoonist Decur is obsessed with desktops. Even has one circular desktop at home. So this book is shaped like a drawer and must be opened to access to the inner (it's offered in a case). And inside we find a whole own world. He admits that the iconography is quite inspired by traditional fairy tales, with simple, tender characters of imperfect beauty. His cartoons are sometimes graphic aphorisms, jokes, thoughts, epiphanies...

Decur uses a laborious technique, layer by layer with acrylic.
